Inverell Art Prize 2026 Judge Bio

Murray Bird

Introducing our 2026 Inverell Art Prize Judge, Mr Murray Bird!

Born in Sydney in 1969, Murray studied art at Hornsby TAFE in 1988, where he was awarded a Certificate of Fine Art.

From 1989 to 1994, he studied fine figurative drawing and painting at the Julian Ashton Art School in Sydney. In 1992, he was the winner of the Sir William Dobell Scholarship for Drawing and was awarded a Diploma of Fine Art with Distinction from the Julian Ashton Art School.

From 1994 to 2016, Murray was a teacher at the Julian Ashton Art School.

In 1997, he was the winner of the A.M.E. Bale Travelling Scholarship, travelling throughout Europe for approximately a year and studying collections in major cities.

Between 2003 and 2015, Murray held seven solo exhibitions at Dickerson Gallery in Sydney and Melbourne, as well as participating in numerous group exhibitions, including the 2014 Journeys West exhibition at Orange Regional Gallery.

In 2016, Murray moved from Sydney to Bukkulla, north of Inverell, to his family property, where he now produces wool and lambs. Since moving to Bukkulla, he has also sold his work through A.K. Bellingier Gallery in Inverell.

Quite the artistic journey — and now we're lucky enough to have Murray as part of ours!
